WRECKED!

Steamer Big Kanawha Cut Down By Ice and is Torn to Pieces

Never before has there been such destruction of river property as was witnessed at this point when the ice gorge let go here yesterday afternoon.

The river first gorged December 15th, 1904, and remained closed for about ten days.

It closed the second time February 1st and opened at 7:45 on the morning of the 11th, running for half an hour when it stopped and did not start again until 2 o'clock of the same afternoon.

The ice gorged again on the afternoon of the 14th and remained closed until the 24th, when it again started at 2 o'clock.

The Laurance announced the moving of the ice by blowing her whistle and in two minutes the river front on both sides of the Ohio was lined by thousands of people taking in one of Nature's panoramic views that will linger with them for years to come.

The sight of the mighty water as, with irresistible force, it swept everything before it was grand and awe-inspiring.

The Big Kanawha was lashed to the wharf-boat, and four large hawsers were used in an endeavor to hold her fast; the Laurance was lying in the wake of the Kanawha and the Tacoma was below the ferry-boat closer in shore and in comparative safety.

When the gorge moved it came right on over the ice piers and, striking the Big Kanawha, snapped the big cables and carried her on down, and in passing the Laurance raked the side of her upper works off as clean as if cut with a knife.

She grazed the Tacoma, and Captain Williamson having left the pilot house, jumped from the doomed boat onto the hurricane deck of the former.

There remained aboard the steamer Nath Farmer, engineer, Charles McGill, Theodore Adams and Joe Webb, who made a heroic but futile effort to make a landing.

Just below the lower grade she listed, and it looked as though she were about to turn turtle. At this point the crew deserted the now fast sinking craft by jumping on the moving ice and making their way safely to shore.

Being left to her fate she was knocked about by the large floes like a chip, and in passing a stranded barge near Pogue's Distillery the boat was further injured, and floating a short distance farther she was cut down by the ice and sank, not far from shore, both boat and cargo being a complete wreck and a total loss.

The Big Kanawha is valued at $10,000, partly insured. The Tacoma escaped with comparatively little damage—a small hole in the hull and her fantail injured being about all.

With the exception of the machinery, the Laurance is a wreck, and will have to be rebuilt. Captain Clephane, Harry Flesher, engineer, and Charley Campbell, stood by the boat and defied danger in fighting to save her.

Captain Phister did everything mortal man could have done to protect his own, as well as other people's property. Time and money he gave freely to avert the danger and loss.

As the Big Kanawha was sinking her whistle blew in a soft, sad note as if bidding farewell to earthly things.

The Captain of the Tacoma is to be commended for the seamanlike manner in which he has taken care of his boat, and to his untiring vigilance can her safety be attributed.

The dog on the Big Kanawha was rescued after its perilous voyage.

Never before have we sold as many suits and overcoats during the month of February as we have in this February. It is only due to this: "THE PUBLIC HAS FAITH IN WHAT WE TELL IT." We made up our mind to close out our winter goods at prices that we knew that intelligent people would take advantage of. Consequently hundreds of our friends bought suits and overcoats at prices that we cannot replace them for. Many choice suits and overcoats are still on our counters. We will continue the sale as long as any are left.

Corsets!

We must shorten sail on our Corset stock to get ready for spring goods, which by the way differ but slightly in cut from present models, the chief change is in material, batiste replaces coutil. Many women however prefer the heavier corset for year-round wear and to them this offering will appeal. We do not need to dwell on the "bestness" of these Corsets—only worthy, tried sorts find entrance to our stock. The lot includes the following—

No. 1—Coutil, medium bust, long di hips, flat abdomen, real whalebone, double supporters in front, $1 formerly $1.50.

No. 2—Coutil, low bust, long pointed hips, lace and ribbon trimmed top, for full figures, $1.50 formerly $2.

Our Great Carpet and Rug Sale!

Starts Saturday, February 25th, RED LETTER DAY AND DOUBLE STAMP DAY. A couple of months ago Alex. Smith Sons, the largest carpet makers on earth, astonished the carpet world by announcing that they would sell their entire output at PUBLIC AUCTION. Six million dollars worth of Rugs and Carpets, made for the spring trade, 1905, to be sold under the hammer, without reservation, was a fact too big for the mercantile public to grasp. The New York Journal, commenting on same, said: "It was the most stupendous mercantile event the world has ever experienced." Our Mr. A. L. Merz was the only merchant in this section who attended this sale, and for six whole days he sat side by side with the largest wholesalers in America and bought Carpets and Rugs at enormous savings.

Any One Interested in Carpets or Rugs

THIS SPRING cannot afford to miss this sale. Prices today are absolutely lower than the wholesale prices. Remember, this sale starts on Red Letter Day and Double Stamp Day, so it's a good day to come.

THE IDEAL WIFE

Shapes the Destiny of Men—The Influence of a Healthy Woman Cannot Be Overestimated.

Seven-eighths of the men in this world marry a woman because she is beautiful in their eyes—because she has the qualities which inspire admiration, respect and love.

There is a beauty in health which is more attractive to men than mere regularity of feature. The influence of women glorious in the possession of perfect physical health upon men and upon the civilization of the world could never be measured. Because of them men have attained the very heights of ambition; because of them even thrones have been established and destroyed.

What a disappointment, then, to see the fair young wife's beauty fading away before a year passes over her head! A sickly, half-dead-and-alive woman, especially when she is the mother of a family, is a damper to all joyousness in the home, and a drag upon her husband.

The cost of a wife's constant illness is a serious drain upon the funds of a household, and too often all the doctoring does no good.

If a woman finds her energies are flagging, and that everything tires her, dark shadows appear under her eyes, her sleep is disturbed by horrible dreams; if she has backache, headaches, bearing-down pains, nervousness, whites, irregularities, or despondency, she should take means to build her system up at once by a tonic with specific powers, such as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

This great remedy for women has done more in the way of restoring health to the women of America than all other medicines put together. It is the safeguard of woman's health.

Following we publish, by request, a letter from a young wife.

Mrs. Bessie Ainsley of 611 South 10th Street, Tacoma, Wash., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— "Ever since my child was born I have suffered, as I hope few women ever have, with inflammation, female weakness, bearing-down pains, backache and wretched headaches. It affected my stomach so that I could not enjoy my meals, and half my time was spent in bed.

Mrs. Bessie Ainsley

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman, and I feel so grateful that I am glad to write and tell you of my marvelous recovery. It brought me health, new life and vitality."

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Mrs. Ainsley it will do for every woman who is in poor health and ailing.

Its benefits begin when its use begins. It gives strength and vigor from the start, and surely makes sick women well and robust.

Remember Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound holds the record for the greatest number of actual cures of woman's ills. This fact is attested to by the thousands of letters from grateful women which are on file in the Pinkham laboratory. Merit alone can produce such results.

Women should remember that a cure for all female diseases actually exists, and that cure is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Take no substitute.

If you have symptoms you don't understand write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice—it is free and always helpful.

SPECIAL MEETINGS CLOSED

With Two More Additions Last Night at the Baptist Church

A very successful meeting of four days closed at the Baptist Church last night.

The subject of Dr. Hines—"Repentance"—was taken from Acts iii, 19, in which he made very plain that the way of eternal life was through repentance, and that repentance was an entire change of mind instead of feelings, as some people try to believe.

Mrs. Cummings sang the beautiful selection, "I Shall See Him Face to Face."

At the close of the service two came forward to take their stand for Christ and asking for admission to the Church.

Regular services tomorrow, morning and evening, by the Pastor. You are cordially invited to come.

Mr. A. W. Thompson bought a nice bay saddle and harness mare Thursday from Mr. C. M. White.

Mr. Eneas Myall returned last evening from Cincinnati, where he has been attending a course of lectures in embalming.

Checks aggregating $300,000 have been sent from the State Auditor this week to the teachers of common schools of the state. This payment is the last 20% of the per capita for the school year.

REV. BANNER'S SERMONS.

The regular Church services will be resumed tomorrow at the Third Street M. E. Church, and the Pastor has prepared to make these services very interesting. The morning sermon at 10:30 will be the first of the series of sermons on "The Life of Jesus," entitled, "Jesus as a Preacher." At 7 p. m. the Pastor will give a ten minutes' sermon on, "Is the World Growing Better," before the sermon, the first of the series on "The Highway to Heaven," entitled, "The Way, the Truth and the Life."

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Another Fine Sermon Last Evening by Prof. Burris A. Jenkins

A very large audience listened to another magnificent sermon at the Christian Church last evening by Rev. Burris A. Jenkins. More than the usual interest was manifested in the service, and great good is expected to result from this splendid series of meetings.

President Jenkins has the power to catch the attention of his hearers at the beginning of his discourse and not for one second does the interest wane.

There will be no afternoon services today, but tonight there will be preaching at 7:30 o'clock.

Tomorrow at 3 p. m. a Men's Meeting will be held at the Courthouse.

Prof. Jenkins will conduct the usual services at the Christian Church tomorrow, morning and evening.

Insanity,
Death or Health?

No. 2807 Locust Street,
St. Louis, Mo., March 29, 1905.

I was a victim of sleeplessness and extreme nervousness for eighteen months, unable to get a proper night's rest and feeling tired and worn out continually. I was easily irritated and hysterical at the slightest provocation, but Wine of Cardui gave me great relief. Within a week after I began using it I had my first real good night's rest that I had had for months. My appetite was soon restored, my general system toned up and nervousness became a thing of the past.

I am so pleased to acknowledge the great curative merit of your health giving medicine and gladly endorse it.

Harriet O. Best
CHAIRMAN, LADIES OF HONOR, No. 97.

WINE OF CARDUI

We want to call your attention to the complete and immediate relief Mrs. Best secured by taking Wine of Cardui. Within a week after she began taking Wine of Cardui, Mrs. Best had her first good night's rest for eighteen months. Her restlessness was caused by nervousness and Wine of Cardui, as the best menstrual regulator, has no superior in the world as a medicine to soothe a woman's nerves. Nervousness and hysteria are warnings of the approach of insanity and if relief is not secured the end can only be the asylum or the grave. With such an outlook as this before her, no suffering woman can reasonably refuse to give Wine of Cardui a trial. It brings a cure that thousands of women have sought for in vain. Will you secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui today and start treatment?

All druggists sell $1.00 bottles Wine of Cardui.

The old cold goes; a new one quickly comes. It's the story of a weak throat, weak lungs, a tendency to consumption. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral breaks up the taking-cold habit. It strengthens, soothes, heals. Consult your doctor about this.

FEARIS.

Snow No. 18 fell here Monday morning.

Rev. Sturgell preached here Sunday evening.

For the fourth time this winter the ice in the creeks is breaking up.

About 15,000 pounds of tobacco passed through here to market Tuesday morning.

A protracted meeting will begin at the M. E. Church Tuesday night conducted by the Pastor.

This place was well represented at the Tobacco Fair Wednesday. Your scribe is horse de combat, therefore was not able to attend.

There has not been a lick of farm work done this winter. Heard farmers say that there has been no time they could grub and build fences or plow.

We are having fine grip weather. The cold East wind and the damp atmosphere from the ice and snow feel like sticking your head in a barrel of ice water.

"There Isn't One Really Good Printer in Five Hundred."

Printers' Ink—the leading journal on publicity of all kinds—has the following to say: "There are thousands of printers in this country, good, indifferent, and a lot of bad ones. There isn't one really good printer in five hundred. Intelligent advertisers are willing to pay for good printing, no matter where it comes from."

Printers' Ink knows what it is talking about. Poor printing is a bad investment—it's worse than a blank. A business man's stationery or booklet is like a traveling man—if it's neat, well-dressed and to the point, the first impression is good and your chances of doing business on the strength of it are good.

We realize this. We keep abreast of the times. We know what good printing is and produce it. We are pretty careful not to let a bum job get onto our presses. No press in the country can better our printing and we want you to know it.

Mr. Pleas Henderson of this place and Miss Cora Robb of Chalk Ridge were married the 14th inst. at the bride's residence by Esquire Pool of Quick's Run.

The most of the people will rejoice if the Tobacco Growers Association will succeed of organization with money to pay the farmer a good living price. The failure to raise the finance reminds us of many other lesser proposed schemes to benefit mankind and other matters in a general way. All the good points are put forward and the grand scheme will work wonders if only it's successful, but as soon as the pocketbook is mentioned to finance the proposed good thing, away she goes under. Better put up the finance and build according to that and you may succeed.

SAY!

You people who have been buying river coal all winter, have you noticed your pile lately? It's going down mighty fast, isn't it? Well, now, that is caused by the ice in it melting. In our coal you don't get any of that. You get nothing but nice, clean coal arriving from the mines most every day. Then our coal is worth a trial, isn't it? Call up 69 and we will tell you more about it. Remember, we also handle Salt, Sand and Baled Hay.

SOCIAL EVENTS

The hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Welsh of near Washington was thrown open to quite a number of friends last evening. The occasion was in honor of Miss Janie Sullivan of Hilltop. The guests began to arrive about 7:30. When a number of them had assembled the music started and they began to while away the few short hours in the mazy dance. At 12 o'clock the guests passed out into the dining-room, which was beautifully decorated with holly and flowers, where a delightful repast was served, after which dancing was again engaged in until the wee small hours of the morning. Among those present were—Misses Nellie Quinn, Mayne Sullivan, Emma Griner, Mae Buran, Janie Sullivan, Mary McAuliffe, Julia Larkin, Agnes Gantley, Mary Larkin and many others; Messrs. Dan Slattery, Pat Quinn, Ed Maher, Robert Griner, Joe Larkin, Chris Larkin and John Larkin.

Miss Janie Sullivan, the guest of honor, was very handsome in an elegant gown trimmed with delicate lace. The guests left at a late hour, all pronouncing the affair a most charming one.

Maysville Has to Bow to the Inevitable—Scores of Citizens Prove It.

After the reader has read the public statement of this representative citizen of Maysville given below, he must fairly, squarely and honestly come to this conclusion. A remedy which cured years ago, which has kept the party in good health since, can be relied upon to perform the same work under similar circumstances. Read this:

M. E. Chisholm, Constable in District No. 2, living at 343 East Second street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"Doan's Kidney Pills positively cured me of kidney trouble, and I do not hesitate to give them the strongest kind of recommendation. I had been troubled with too frequent action of the kidney secretions and it disturbed my rest nights. Having my attention called to Doan's Kidney Pills I procured them at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drugstore and I noticed an improvement in my condition from the start. My trouble was soon entirely cured. This was some five years ago, and I have had no return of it since. Anyone suffering from difficulties arising from disordered kidneys can make no mistake by using Doan's Kidney Pills."
